2. AGREEMENT OVERVIEW

This Service Level Agreement (SLA) Brief outlines the terms, performance standards, and obligations governing the provision of an integrated RFID Library Automation System with a Digital Notice Board solution. The agreement spans a period of three (3) years from the effective commencement date, ensuring seamless library operations, patron experience enhancement, and real-time information dissemination across the institution.

The system encompasses RFID-based book identification, self-checkout/check-in kiosks, anti-theft security gate, Middleware (Hitchpilot), Staff Station, Tags, Cloud CRM, Checkin/Checkout and a cloud based digital notice board for real-time announcements, AI Notices, New Arrivals, Book Synopsis, Best Sellers and event communication.

8. LEGAL & TERMS

Limitation of Liability:

The service provider shall exercise reasonable skill, care, and diligence in delivering the services described in this agreement. However, under no circumstances shall the service provider be held liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages, including but not limited to loss of profits, loss of data, loss of business opportunities, or interruption of business operations.

This limitation shall not apply to damages resulting from willful misconduct, fraud, or breach of confidentiality obligations.

Termination Conditions:

Either party may terminate this Service Level Agreement by providing sixty (60) days written notice to the other party. The termination notice must clearly state the reason for termination and the proposed effective date.

Confidentiality Clause (NDA override):

Both parties acknowledge that during the course of this agreement, they may have access to confidential and proprietary information belonging to the other party, including but not limited to technical data, system architecture, operational procedures, software designs, business processes, security configurations, and other sensitive information. Each party agrees to maintain strict confidentiality of such information and shall not disclose, reproduce, or distribute the confidential information to any third party without prior written consent from the other party.

The receiving party shall use the confidential information solely for the purpose of fulfilling obligations under this Service Level Agreement. Both parties shall take reasonable security measures to protect confidential information from unauthorized access, disclosure, or misuse.

This confidentiality obligation shall remain in effect during the term of the agreement and for a period of three (3) years after the termination or expiration of this agreement.

Intellectual Property:

All intellectual property rights related to software applications, system designs, technical documentation, and proprietary tools developed or used by the service provider during the execution of this agreement shall remain the sole property of the service provider unless otherwise specified in a separate written agreement.

The client shall receive a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the software and systems deployed under this agreement solely for internal operational purposes related to the project.

The client shall not copy, modify, distribute, reverse engineer, or commercially exploit any part of the service provider's proprietary software or systems without prior written authorization.

Force Majeure:

Neither party shall be liable for any delay or failure to perform obligations under this agreement if such delay or failure results from events beyond their reasonable control. These events include, but are not limited to:

Natural disasters such as earthquakes, floods, or storms

War, terrorism, or civil unrest
